Good Practise: Cooperation between the country of origin and the receiving country

Brno, Hotel Voronež, 16. 5. 2019
Lucia Skorušová, Kristinn Ingvarsson

Why we are here today?

We believe that:

- intercountry adoption is the best option for some children
- we can help to find these children better future

Why do we have this presentation together?

Decreasing number of adoptions

Older children

Children with specific needs

Big number of accredited bodies

Fewer applicants

Experience from conferences

UMPOD and IAS

Cooperation started in 2007

42 children placed to preadoptive care to Iceland

The biggest number of children placed to preadoptive care to abroad per capita

Why is cooperation important?

How to establish a good cooperation
